The Times

City Brevities.

No trace has as yet been found of John Carr, a young man, slightly demented, who is missing from his home, No. 18 Prospect street.

The District Commissioners have accepted the offer of a site for the enginehouse of Anacostia, made by Beck & Welser, upon their bid of $2,500.

Joseph R. Wilson was yesterday directed by Justice Cox to pay alimony to his wife, Louise Wilson, at the rate of $30 per month pending the suit for divorce brought by her.

Building permits were issued yesterday as follows: John Sherman, three brick dwellings, Holmead, to cost $2,000; Cleveland Park Company, dwelling on Newark street, $5,000.

Two members of the Board of Commissioners yesterday inspected the Lovjoy School building, the patrons having complained of its condition and the condition of the sidewalk adjacent.

Harry Ratcliffe and William Gross, charged with injuring the fixtures of an unoccupied dwelling, the property of L. M. D. Clark and William T. Galtner, on April 27, were acquitted of the charge in Judge Kimball's court yesterday.

The Commissioners were yesterday advised in response to their inquiry, of the equity court, that the title to the site for the new enginehouse, on Eighth street northwest, can be legally transferred, and that the purchase may be safely made. The present title is vested in heirs.

Articles of incorporation for an association designated as the People's Excursion Company were presented yesterday for record. The capital stock was placed at $7,500, each share to be $10, and the trustees designated are John W. Patterson, M. L. D. Cooper, Fricilla Wheeler, William Wilson and Maria M. Reed.

Mrs. Mary A. Clements' Will. The will of Mrs. Mary Ann Clements, late a resident at No. 460 C street southwest, was presented at the probate court yesterday for record. It will bears date of December 12, 1892, and directs that her real estate be sold as soon as possible after her decease, from the proceeds of which the sum of $250 is to be paid to Mrs. Mary Stoddard, the sister-in-law of the testatrix, and the remainder to be distributed among three grandchildren, Mrs. Mary C. Eastatt, George Eastatt, and Mrs. Gertrude B. Eastatt. William F. Ratcliffe named as executor.

Breaking Up a Bad Gang. Policemen Bean and Corby have received many complaints about a crowd of disorderly youths who range about Myrtle street, 1 and K streets, northeast, and greatly annoy the residents of those thoroughfares. The police have determined to break up the gang, and yesterday they had Motrow Moxley, Charles Connors and Jesse Norton before Judge Mills. The case against Moxley was dismissed. The others were fined $5 each. More arrests will be made.

Issue of Marriage Licenses. Marriage licenses were issued yesterday as follows: Frank G. Thibodeau and Norah Wanders. Patrick E. Long and Margaret R. Harvey, both of Frederick city, Md.

Henry B. Gullward and Susie A. Indermayer. Walter Wiggins, of Tenleytown, and Lucinda Brown, of Boyd's Station, Md.

This is Circus Day. This is Circus Day, and the small boy was up early this morning, looking or wheeling it for dear life to the scene of the temporary white city on the corner of M street and North Capitol street. This morning at 8:30 the parade will leave the grounds and pass over the following line of march: North Capitol to H, to Massachusetts avenue, to Sixth, to F, to Ninth, to Rhode Island avenue, to Fourteenth to K, to Pennsylvania, to First, to G, to North Capitol, to show grounds. The feature of the parade is to be the team of forty horses. But there will be all the other elements of a great show, as only the circus can put it up for us. During the day of the circus, today and tomorrow, there will be performances each afternoon and each evening.

Best Physicians Recommend It. Why take all kinds of patent medicines, which often do you more harm than good, when you can get a wholesome, nourishing tonic in the form of PURE BEER?

"RUBY LAGER" is highly recommended by best physicians in all cases where a strengthening and wholesome tonic is required. "Champagne Lager" is the favorite for table and social use.
